NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS:

The Trade Practices Act, 1974 came into force on the 1st October 1974. All advertisers and advertising agents are directed to carefully study the provisions of the Act, which contain strict regulations on advertising.

It can be an offence for anyone to engage, in trade or commerce, in conduct deemed "misleading or deceptive". Specifically s53 of the Act contains prohibitions from doing any of the following in connection with the promotion, by any means, of the supply or use of goods or services:

- (a) falsely represent that goods are of a particular standard, quality, value, grade, composition, style or model or have had a particular history or particular previous use;
- (b) falsely represent that goods are new;
- (c) represent that goods or services have sponsorship, approval, performance characteristics, accessories, uses or benefits they do not have;
- (d) represent that the corporation has a sponsorship, approval or affiliation it does not have;
- (e) make a false or misleading representation with respect to the price of goods or services;
- (f) make a false or misleading representation concerning the need for any goods or services; or
- (g) make a false or misleading representation concerning the existence, exclusion or effect of any condition, warranty, guarantee, right or remedy.

PENALTIES:

For an individual — $10,000 or six months imprisonment

For a corporation — $50,000. It is not possible for this company to ensure that advertisements published in this newspaper comply with the Act and the responsibility must, therefore, be on the person, company or advertising agency submitting the advertising for publication. In case of doubt, consult your lawyer.
